3.4.5. To control the proper use of advertising suits in accordance with Meta Advertising Standards, Google Advertising Policies, TikTok Advertising Policies, as well as the terms of this agreement, the Agency has the right to check advertising campaigns activated in advertising suits, advertising materials, such as video, audio, photo materials, text information, advertised website (web page/app). The Agency has the right to check the target audience according to the following parameters: the age of the target audience, the country of the target audience and other indicators that may relate to the protection of user rights

4. Responsibilities of the Parties

4.1. Client may at anytime during the term of this Agreement, relieve Agency of its services if the latter is found to be operating unethically, maliciously, with fraud or with dishonor to Client.

4.2. The Client is responsible for any not pre-agreed advertising (or other non-discussed product).

4.3. The Agency may at anytime during the term of this Agreement relieve Client of its services if Client is found to be operating unethically or with dishonor towards Agency / Authorized Sales Partners.

4.4. The Agency is not responsible for advertising settings and advertising quality set by the Client.

4.5. The Agency is not responsible for decisions made by a third party - Authorized Sales Partners.

5. Payment order

5.1. The currency of payment under this agreement is US dollar.

5.2. The amount and terms of payment for Services rendered by the Agency are determined by invoices based on agreed Orders and/or acts of work performed. A portion of the invoiced amount constitutes the Agency fee for the provided services, and the remaining portion represents fees payable to Authorized Sales Partners.

5.3. Agency Fee Structure

META Advertising Accounts

The Agency Fee shall be calculated based on the Client's monthly advertising spend as follows:

7% of monthly advertising spend for volumes of USD 20,000 and above

6% of monthly advertising spend for volumes of USD 100,000 and above

5% of monthly advertising spend for volumes of USD 250,000 and above

Google Advertising Accounts

The Agency Fee shall be calculated based on the Client's monthly advertising spend as follows:

6% of monthly advertising spend for volumes of USD 20,000 and above

5% of monthly advertising spend for volumes of USD 100,000 and above

4% of monthly advertising spend for volumes of USD 250,000 and above

5.4. It has been agreed by the Parties hereto that in the event of any delay on the part of the Client to pay the Fees according to the invoice, the Agency have the right not to start execution of any and all services/orders to the Client after the expiry of such period until all outstanding dues have been cleared.

5.5. It has been agreed by the Parties hereto that in the event of any delay on the part of the Client to pay the Fees within 30 days from the due date, would constitute a Material breach of the Agreement by the Client and Agency shall have the right to stop execution of any and all services to the Client after the expiry of such period until all outstanding dues have been cleared.

5.6 For the purposes of calculation, allocation, and crediting of funds to the Client's advertising accounts, only the amount actually received and credited to the Agency's bank or payment account under the relevant invoice shall be taken into account.

5.7 The Agency shall not be responsible for any fees, deductions, or charges applied by the Client's bank, intermediary banks, or payment service providers prior to the funds being received by the Agency, regardless of the selected payment method or cost-sharing option.

5.8 The Agency shall bear only the fees directly charged to the Agency by its own bank or payment service provider after the funds have been received.

6. Force majeure

6.1. The Parties are not liable for the non-performance or late performance of any obligation or commitment under the Agreement if such non-performance or late performance has occurred due to, or as a result from, the force majeure circumstances, provided that the Party affected by the force majeure circumstances and seeking to invoke them as a defence to its non-performance or late performance has duly complied with the terms set out below.

6.2. For the purposes of this Agreement the force majeure circumstances shall mean any civil unrest, riots, war, strike or other similar circumstances which hinder normal activities of the Party, including, fire, flood, other acts of nature, any prohibitions and bans imposed by any Authorized Sales Partners on the transfer or export of technology, as well as other similar circumstances which are beyond a reasonable control of the affected Party (the Force Majeure circumstances).

6.3. The Party which has been affected by the Force Majeure circumstances shall as soon as practicable after becoming aware of such circumstances notify the other Party (enclosing with the notice all the information being at its disposal on the Force Majeure circumstances and the consequences caused by such event) and shall exercise all reasonable efforts in order to mitigate the consequences of the Force Majeure circumstances as far as they relate to the Agreement and the Party's performance thereunder and, if, upon a due investigation made by the affected Party, it can be reasonably expected that the Force Majeure circumstances or the elimination of the consequences will last more than 30 Business Days, the affected Party shall also propose in such notice or in another notice alternative solutions to the obligations of the affected Party which it cannot perform or comply with due to, or as a result of, the Force Majeure circumstances.

6.4. If the Force Majeure circumstances delay or suspend the performance of the Party under the Agreement, then the time of the performance of the obligations thereby affected, shall be extended for the period of time equal to the period of existence of the Force Majeure circumstances and such reasonable time as may be needed to resume the performance.

6.5. If, as the result of the Force Majeure circumstances (i) material and irreparable damage has been caused to the purposes of the Agreement, or (ii) the performance of the affected Party is hindered or has not been possible longer than 45 consecutive days, or (iii) the performance of the affected Party is impossible or there is a reasonable basis to assume that the Force Majeure circumstances preventing the Party to perform its obligations under the Agreement will continue to last for more than 90 consecutive days or that the consequences thereof will not be remedied by the end of the said 90 consecutive days' period so as to restore the situation in which the Parties would have been had the performance of the Agreement been unaffected by the Force Majeure circumstances, then the Parties shall meet and discuss and shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to agree on the possible alternatives for the elimination of the impact of the Force Majeure circumstances on the performance of the Agreement, including the possibility to terminate the Agreement.

6.6. In the event of Force Majeure circumstances the Party may only withdraw from the Agreement with the other Party's consent or, if the Parties have not agreed on the possible alternatives for the elimination of the impact of the Force Majeure circumstances on the performance of the Agreement within 30 (thirty) Days from the date of commencement of the negotiations referred to in the previous clause.

7. Notices

7.1. Notices and declarations of intent forwarded on the basis of the Agreement (Notice) shall be deemed submitted on the working day following the dispatch and the Notice shall be forwarded to the contact person of the Party at the following address or e-mail address:

Agency	Client

Telephone: +852 52612730	447525545347

7.2. Each Party undertakes to immediately notify the other Party of any change in contact details. Until the new contact details are duly notified, the Notice sent to the existing contact details shall be deemed to have been duly delivered.

8. Confidentiality

8.1. Any sensitive figures, data, sales projections, budgets amounts, sales reports, etc relating to the Client, obtained by Agency will remain confidential and will not be shared with anyone outside the company. Each Party (the“Receiving Party”) agrees that it will not disclose to any third party or use any Confidential Information of the other Party (the“Disclosing Party”), except as expressly permitted in this Agreement, and that it shall take all reasonable measures to maintain the confidentiality of all such Confidential Information in its possession or control, which shall in no events be less than the measures it uses to maintain the confidentiality of its own information of similar importance.

8.2. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the obligation of confidentiality shall not apply to any disclosure (i) of information that is in or enters the public domain other than by reason of a breach by the Person receiving such information, (ii) of information that was in the possession of the receiving Person prior to its disclosure to such Person, or (iii) required by law, regulation, legal process, or order of any court or governmental body having jurisdiction provided, however, that prior to such disclosure, the Party who is required to disclose the information shall inform the other Party and consult with that Party as to the information which will be disclosed and, provided, further, that the information so disclosed shall be limited to that legally required to be disclosed pursuant to such law, regulation, legal process, or order of any court or regulatory / government authority.

9. Intellectual Property

9.1. Unless otherwise agreed between the Parties, each Party shall retain all rights to the intellectual property held by such Party as at the entry into the Agreement and during the performance of the Agreement.

9.2. Each Party shall retain all intellectual property rights to its software, trademarks, domain names and other objects of intellectual property.

9.3. To the limited extent in which such is necessary in order to perform the obligations under the Agreement, including to the extent in which it is necessary to integrate any software owned by the Client to the software owned by Agency and/or Authorized Sales Partners, each Party grants to the other Party a non-exclusive world-wide license to use the intellectual property held by such Party during the term of the Agreement without any license fee and without the right to grant any sublicenses to such intellectual property.

10. Copyright

10.1. The Agency agrees not to use any copyright material from sources not provided by the Client in marketing and advertising efforts which can lead to legal complications for the client.

10.2. The Client agrees not to use and/or provide any creative pictures or content which can cause any legal complications to the Agency and/or Authorized Sales Partners.

11. Contract Terms, Change of terms and cancellation of the Agreement

11.1. The period of the contract is for 12 months from the signing date of this Agreement and it will be automatically extended for successive periods of 1 year, unless either Party notifies the other Party at least 3 months prior to the expiration of the current term.

11.2. Either Party can terminate the Agreement, or a part of it concerning a particular product or service, with 2-months prior notice.

11.3. The Agency is entitled to terminate the Agreement unilaterally by giving the Client a written notice if:

(a) The bankruptcy, criminal, reorganization (change of ultimate beneficiaries, change of management board, sufficient change in corporate structure of the partner), sanitation, court, money laundering or other proceedings that affects this Agreement or can in any way cause damage to the Agency are in place against Client or other parties related to the Client; (b) if the Client has a debt to the Agency for 30 calendar days from the due date of payment, or any accumulated debt within 45 calendar days;

(c) the termination is required by Authorized Sales Partners.

11.4. The grounds for termination of the Agreement is a breach of the conditions stated in p. 3.1.8. - 3.1.15

12. Miscellaneous

12.1. No variation of this Agreement will be valid unless it is agreed in writing and signed by both Parties. Failure or delay in exercising any right or remedy under this Agreement will not constitute a waiver of such (or any other) right or remedy.

12.2. This Agreement constitutes the whole agreement between the Parties and supersedes any previous arrangement, understanding or agreement between them relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. Each Party acknowledges that in entering into this Agreement it has not relied upon any oral or written statements, collateral or other warranties, assurances, representations, or undertakings which were made by or on behalf of the other Party in relation to the subject-matter of this Agreement at any time before its signature other than those which are set out in this Agreement.

12.3. Client agrees that if any term in this Agreement is deemed to be invalid, unlawful or unenforceable for any reason, all other terms shall remain in force.

12.4. Any and all claims for loss arising under this Agreement will be subject to a general obligation of the Parties to use all reasonable efforts to mitigate such losses.

12.5. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales.

12.6. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination, shall be finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the Rules of the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA), which Rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference into this clause.

The seat (legal place) of arbitration shall be London, England.
The language of the arbitration shall be English.
The tribunal shall consist of one arbitrator, unless the Parties agree otherwise.
12.7. The terms of the Agreement are legal, valid and binding to each Party.
